Our fight for the schools Detroit's students and educators deserve must be waged on multiple fronts—including in the political arena. During the upcoming election season, voters will decide on a number of issues that are critical to the future of our school district, our union and our city.

- School Board Elections
- Wayne County Millage
- Michigan House (Legislature) Races
- Presidential Election

It's time to join the fight.

YES! I will join the fight by participating in phone banking, community canvassing and voter registration.
